FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hunt Electric, Inc. Names CEO Richard Hunt and President Troy Gregory

Salt Lake City, Utah (January 7, 2011) – Hunt Electric, Inc., a Salt Lake City based, full service electrical contractor, announced the promotion of Troy Gregory as President at their annual all-employee meeting in December. Mr. Gregory assumes the role of President from Richard Hunt as part of a long term transition plan. He will be charged with the leadership of the company's 5 divisions and over 250 employees in the Electrical, Traffic, Infrastructure, Service and ITS markets. Mr. Hunt will assume the role of CEO and will focus on strategic growth initiatives, development of new markets and senior management functions.

Mr. Gregory has a wide range of experience in the field of electrical construction and has perfected his skills on major construction projects in Utah and the surrounding states most recently the City Creek project in Salt Lake City. His experience, extensive knowledge of the business and his relationships with General Contractors and customers in the Intermountain area will serve him well in this senior level position." I have every confidence that Troy possesses the knowledge, experience and commitment needed to lead Hunt Electric into the future as I transition my focus to company growth", said Richard Hunt.
